Deep Tissue Sports Percussion Massage Gun

Recommended for use before, during or after exercise (for enhanced performance or recovery) the percussion action of the massage head against the skin stimulates blood and lymphatic circulation, warms up muscle tissue and improves your tissue elasticity. When used after exercising, the gun's massaging actions helps to bring oxygen and nutrients into the muscles, whilst flushing lactic acid to reduce muscle fatigue, soreness and cramps.

- Ideal for use before, during or after exercise to help achieve better performance or recovery
- Includes 6 interchangeable massage heads, enabling full body muscle relief
- 20 intensity levels
- Promotes localised blood and lymphatic circulation
